If you answered Yes or Uncertain to a potential conflict of interest, please explain	Work full time
What special skill or knowledge would you bring to the BOA/BCS?	Director of Client Services, people management. Six Sigma green belt with background in project management and process improvement
The Board of Adjustment is considered a quasi-judicial board with appeals going to district court. What are your feelings on the importance of this role for which you are volunteering?	There are many changes happening in our town and I would like to take part in these decisions. It is critical that the residents voices be heard Objectivity and a knowledge of municipal ordinances is necessary to ascertain when a variance is in the public interest, does not create an unnecessary hardship, and upholds the spirit of the ordinance from which you are granting a variance. A financial hardship is not considered a reason for granting a variance. Please define “unnecessary hardship” as it would relate to granting a variance.

Would not diminish surrounding properties or be contrary to public interest

Please provide any additional information you feel would be useful to the City Council in considering your application. A cover letter and/or resume may also be submitted with the application.

Field not completed.
