

EXEMPTIONS FROM JURY SERVICE

(Texas Government Code, Section 62.106)

To be exempted from serving as a juror, you must:

- Be over 75 years of age. (If you would like to be permanently removed, you must submit a written request or fill out the electronic form on our website. Our office will submit this request to the Harris County Voter Registration Office.)
- Have legal custody of a child or children younger than 15 years of age and service on the jury would require leaving the child or children without adequate supervision. (This exemption does not apply to those who work outside the home during normal business hours. It does not apply if children are in a daycare facility. Please explain unusual circumstances in writing or appear as summoned.)
- Be a student at a public or private high school.
- Be enrolled and in actual attendance at an institution of higher education.
- Be an officer or an employee of the Senate, House of Representatives, or any department, commission, board, office, or other agency in the legislative branch of state government.
- Be the primary caretaker of a person who is an invalid and unable to care for himself or herself. (This exemption does not apply to you if you are a primary caretaker only in your capacity as a health care worker.)
- Be a member of the United States military forces serving on active duty and deployed to a location away from your home station and out of your county of residence.
- Have served as a juror in this county during the 24-month period prior to the date you are required to appear by this summons.
- Have been summoned for jury service in this county, and you have served as a petit juror in this county during the three-year period prior to the date you are required to appear by this summons.

I certify that I am exempt from jury service for the reasons checked above.
