47

48 Chairman Gary Renola opened the public hearings at 6:02 p.m.
49
51

52 Director of Community Development, Sean Landis explained that the applicant is requesting a 53 Conditional Use Permit for bar use at 2900 E. NASA Parkway. In the past there would have 54 been limitations due to a church being within a certain distance. Since the church has relocated
55 there are no legal issues with request.

56
57 A brief presentation was given by business owner, Mr. Bryan Marshall. He explained that 58 he was passionate about the hospitality industry and bars and creating a great atmosphere for 59 people to be in. He showed the board a few renderings and layout of his business concept and 60 explained that people aged 21 to 35 love the modern minimalist look. The business would 61 mainly be selling craft beers, hard seltzers, wines and bottled cold brew coffee with hours of 62 operation from noon until midnight. The business would be closed on Sundays and the 63 expected opening date would be sometime in March.

64
65 Chairman Renola closed the public hearing at 6:11 p.m.

79 EFFECTIVE DATE.

80
81 Chairman Renola opened the public hearing for this item at 6:13 p.m.

82
83 A brief presentation was given by business owner, Mrs. Jennifer Pitts. She explained that she 84 would like to start open air markets to help local business owners showcase their products. She 85 explained that there is only one craft market held in Pasadena going on 7 years now and that she 86 has full support of neighboring Seabrook businesses to have open air markets. Surrounding 87 businesses would also allow for additional parking and restroom use. Market days would be 88 held monthly on the 1st Saturday of each month. This would also help bring in visitors into
89 historic Old Seabrook. Her current business Jenuine Treasures Craft Boutique just recently
90 opened in November 2019 to offer vendors an opportunity to showcase their products.

91
92 Comments were made by Mr. Hank Kidd, building owner of 902 Hardesty. He fully supported
93 Mrs. Pitts open air markets and has no objections

94
95 Additional comments were made by Mr. Michael Henderson, business owner of Good Sense
96 Provisions at 913 Hardesty Ave. He also was very supportive of open air markets and additional 97 parking being provided.

99 Chairman Renola closed the public hearing at 6:34 p.m.
