

MAY 2-8, 2021
PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state and local levels, who take not only jobs, but oaths; and

WHEREAS, many public servants risk their lives each day in service of the people whom they selflessly serve; and

WHEREAS, public servants provide essential services in many areas, including health care, education, human services, public safety, transportation, economic development, natural resources, agriculture, scientific research, digital services, recreation and countless other occupations, serving day in and day out with professionalism, efficiency, dedication, and integrity; and

WHEREAS, the City of Seabrook and its residents benefit greatly from the work performed by its public servants; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thom Kolupski, Mayor of the City of Seabrook on behalf of the City Council, citizens and employees of the City do hereby proclaim May 2 – 8, 2021 as Public Service Recognition Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Seabrook to be affixed this 4th day of May, 2021.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, which appears to read "Thomas G. Kolupski".

Thomas G. Kolupski
Mayor