J/Fest Southwest Marketing Plan – 2020

During 2020, marketing for this event will consist of two focus areas:

1. Marketing of the event by Lakewood Yacht Club (LYC),
2. Marketing of the regatta by J/Boats Southwest including J/Boats, Inc.

Lakewood Yacht Club (LYC) focuses on local media and regional publicity. LYC also works with the title sponsor City of Seabrook to coordinate promotional activities. In 2020 we will coordinate with Houston YC to attract additional visiting J70 race boats that are mostly from out of town.

J/Boats Southwest focuses on establishing contacts with specific potential event participants and promoting the event to the J/Boats organizations. Most of these important contacts are outside the local area. They consist of distinct regional and national groups including J/Boats, Inc. a worldwide organization.

The influence of this wider marketing is expected to gain ever greater significance as the regatta continues to grow into an ever more important national event. Lakewood Yacht Club and J/Boats Southwest have built a 'brand' event through this regatta evidenced by 67 yacht entries in 2019. Entries have increased year on year since 2016 which was 59. As a consequence, we have now been able to attract three National Championship Regattas (J/80 in 2015, J/70 in 2016, J/105 in 2017) and will be submitting proposals for future National level regattas including a J70 Circuit event this fall before boats go to Florida. These events further raise the exposure to national media and opens new avenues for marketing to a national audience.

Our marketing effort promotes J/Fest Southwest as the premier regatta of its type in the wider region, attracting top talent and nationally recognized competitors through top rate regatta management, first class hospitality, entertainment, facilities and our unique Galveston Bay location. As title sponsor for the regatta, the City of Seabrook benefits through promotion of its businesses, entertainment, restaurants and hotels. The official Seabrook logo will be included in all official event documents, website, trophies, etc.

J/Fest Southwest Regatta 10th Anniversary!

(Lakewood, TX)- The 10th annual edition of the J/Fest Southwest Regatta will feature many of the exciting and fun events that J/Sailors have enjoyed over the past decade. This year's event will feature live music, a shrimp boil dinner, free beer, spectator boats (for family and friends), and lots of J/Sailors having a lot of fun! Hosting the event at their expansive facilities on Galveston Bay is the incredibly accommodating Lakewood Yacht Club. Participating are one-design fleets of J/22s, J/24s, J/70s and an ORC handicap class.

For the thirteen-boat J/70 fleet, the regatta serves as a 2020 J/70 Worlds qualifier that will be held in Marina del Rey, CA at California Yacht Club. Despite the relatively small size of the fleet, it is bursting with talent from many top southwest sailing teams. Watch for these teams to be factors on the leaderboard; such as Doug Strebel's BLACK RIVER RACING, Mallory & Andrew Loe's DIME from Seattle, WA, Glenn Darden's HOSS, Forbes Durdin's MOJITO, Bruno Pasquinelli's STAMPEDE, Mark Masur's TWO FEATHERS, Al Poindexter's USA 241, and Jay Lutz & Doug Strebel's ZOUNDS. Fun and games for that fleet!

The eleven-boat J/24 fleet also features a number of leading crews in the southwest. Chief amongst them is Jack Franco's 3 BALL JT, plus Stu Juengt's VANG GO, Andrew Theismann's YOUNG'UNS, and Gerald Rademaker's YIKES!

The fourteen-boat J/22 fleet has a number of amusing teams participating. Who's on first in this fleet? Who knows. But, it could be Casey Lambert's BLACKBURN MARINE RACING, Jeff Jones' GAS STATION SUSHI, Dan Pletsch's SKETCHY, Gary Thies' STUDENT DRIVER, or Kevin Orff's TROUBLEMAKER. Wow, sounds like a bunch of refugees from the local mental asylum... anyone want to race against that crazy crew? For sure, they will have a lot of fun.

The J/105s have seven teams participating from around Galveston Bay. Based on their performance at the recent J/105 North American Championship, there is no question the outright favorite has to be Ken Horne's FINAL FINAL team (the infamous boat with class illegal “no windows”). Who will challenge them? Perhaps John Barnett’s PESTO, Brad Robbins’ RUMPUS, Dennis Kokkinis’ SPITFIRE, or Albert Shannon’s WIKI WIKI V.

41st J/24 World

In the J/ORC Division are six teams that will be pointing their bows across the starting line. Those teams include the brand new J/99 USA 007 (another Agent 99!), Albrecht Goethe’s J/46 HAMBURG II, Andy Wescoat’s J/109 HARM’S WAY, J.D. Hills’ J/122 SECOND STAR, Jim Demarest’s J/46 SODALIS III, and George Cushing’s J/92 77. Included in this group is Richard Bell’s J/97E VESPER. For more J/Fest Southwest sailing information

J/Fest Southwest Preview

(Lakewood, TX)- This coming weekend, the Lakewood Yacht Club south of Houston, TX will be hosting the annual J/Fest Southwest Regatta on Galveston Bay from October 25th to 27th. A record fleet of sixty-nine boats is participating from across the Deep South. There are big one-design fleets of J/22s, J/24s, J/70s, and J/105s and a J/ORC class.

The 20-boat J/22 class features a number of leading teams from the region, including Casey Lambert's BLACKBURN MARINE RACING, Jeff Jones' GAS STATION SUSHI, Anne Lee's HELMS A LEE, Farley Fontenot's OLD TIMES, Dan Pletsch's SKETCHY, Gary Theis' STUDENT DRIVER and Kevin Orff's TROUBLEMAKER.

While the J/24 Worlds are taking place in Miami, FL, a solid fourteen-boat J/24 class is assembling on Galveston Bay. Leading crews include Kirk Reynolds' TYRUS, John Parker's CHUPACABRA, Amanda Casey's MOMENTOUS, Ryan Miller's TRICK BAG, Darren Hill's FRAT HOUSE, and Stu Juengst's VANG GO.

Perhaps the most competitive fleet will be the 14-boat J/70 class as the event is a 2020 J/70 Worlds qualifier for the regatta in Marina del Rey, CA. Top teams on the leaderboard should include Jack Franco's 3 BALL JT, Doug Strelbel's BLACK RIVER RACING, Mallory & Andrew Loe's DIME, Glenn Darden's HOSS, Bruno Pasquinelli's STAMPEDE, and Jay Lutz's ZOUNDS.

The J/ORC fleet features a few gold-platers from the region. Two J/46s that recently collected some silverware in the Harvest Moon Regatta will be participating; Albrecht Goethe's HAMBURG II and Jim Demarest's SODALIS III. In addition, there will be J.D. Hill's J/122 SECOND STAR, two J/109s (David Christensen's AIRBORNE and Andy Wescoat's HARM'S WAY), the new J/99 TBD, Bill Sutton's famous J/35 LEADING EDGE, George Cushing's J/92 USA 77, and Ray Bentele's J/29 PRESS TO MECO. Should be fun handicap racing in that fleet!
